

ADULT AUTUMN CHALLENGE BOOKLET

OCTOBER 1

TO

% NOVEMBER 30

For each accomplished task patrons may receive 1 ballot and 5 ballots for every virtual program they attend. : At the end of the challenge patrons may email their completed tasks to ask@pgpl.ca. A small Adult Services task force will fill out every ballot and place them in draw box.

READING

- Read a book that takes place in the Maritimes
- Read a book that was banned or challenged in 2019
- Read a science fiction book by a Canadian author
- Read an excerpt from the Summary of the Final Report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada, or read the TRC Calls to Action
- Read a humorous fiction or non-fiction book
- Read a spooky or chilling book for Hallowe'en
- Read a book of poetry by a BC author
- Read a memoir or autobiography about addiction and recovery
- Read a graphic novel by an LGBTQ+ author
- Read a memoir by a BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Colour)

COMMUNITY

- Convince a friend to sign up for a library card
- Borrow a book from the Nechako branch
- Donate new or gently used socks, hats or gloves to St. Vincent's

- Have a virtual costume contest or parade with friends and family
- Perform a random act of kindness
- Shop at a local business
- Purchase or eat local preserves
- Pick up litter
- Say hello in passing to 5 strangers
- Communicate your appreciation for your favourite organization, business, or human

ACTIVITIES

- Write a poem about the library
- Learn a phrase in American Sign Language
- Learn 5 facts about the Lheidli T'enneh First Nation
- Research local bear aware practices and quiz a friend
- Carve a pumpkin, or spot 5 carved pumpkins around town
- Visit a City park
- Craft or cook something “pumpkin spiced
- Identify 3 plants in your neighbourhood
- Draw your Prince George happy place
- Wear a mask in public

PROGRAMS

- Attend a PGPL virtual adult program = 5 ballots

The Prince George
Public Library
www.pgpl.ca