November & December 2026

Programming Info

PRINCE GEORGE
Public Library

AGE RANGES

Adults:

19+

Seniors:

55+

Families:

Adults attend with a child (0–18).

All Ages:

Adults may attend alone; children (0-18) must attend with an adult.

Age ranges are a helpful guide but we know every individual has various interests. Sometimes, a program designed for one age range may be of interest to another. If you're not sure whether an exception can be made, simply let us know and we will work with you to make the program experience feel right.

Please contact the Adult Engagement Librarian at 250-563-9251 ext. 206 prior to the program to coordinate accommodations.

Welcome to the Prince George Public Library!

A FEW LIBRARY JOKES

Why are witches the best writers?
Because they always run spell-check.

What section of the library can you get bitten by a snake?
Hissssssstory!

FUN BOOK FACTS

The library card is one of the most powerful cards you can own.

It gives you access to thousands of books, movies, eBooks, audiobooks, and more, all for free!

The Prince George Public Library started with fewer than 200 books in 1912 and officially became a public library in 1955. Today, it welcomes hundreds of visitors each day and offers access to books, eBooks, audiobooks, games, technology kits, and much more!

The smallest book in the world is so tiny you need a microscope to read it.

Book: Teeny Ted from Turnip Town!

The longest novel ever written is over 9 million characters long and has nearly 1.3 million words!

Book: Remembrance of Things Past

PARTNERSHIPS
