

Community Engagement Librarian - Youth Full Time

Prince George Public Library

www.pgpl.ca

Under the direction of the Manager of Communications & Engagement, the Community Engagement Librarian – Youth develops and leads opportunities to engage children, youth, and families, expanding the Library's reach and impact. This role focuses on understanding and responding to the diverse needs of the BIPOC, 2SLGBTQ+, immigrants, and those facing accessibility barriers.

Community engagement includes designing and delivering in-person and virtual programs, events, and initiatives that educate, entertain, and enrich patrons' lives. The role also involves gathering community feedback through surveys, research, and partnerships to inform service delivery.

The incumbent builds and maintains relationships with schools, civic agencies, and community organizations that support well-being and socio-economic development. This position may also participate in hiring, supervising, and training support staff.

In addition, the role provides reference, readers' advisory, and customer account services in person, by phone, and online, while upholding established service standards. The incumbent contributes to a respectful, inclusive workplace aligned with Library policies and procedures.

The successful candidate will possess:

- Master's degree in Library and Information Science (ALA-accredited or equivalent).
- Minimum 2 years' relevant library experience in community engagement, outreach, and program development.
- 2–3 years' supervisory experience (hiring, training, scheduling, and performance management).
- Strong digital literacy and familiarity with library technologies and systems.
- Experience with budgeting and reporting.
- Valid BC Class 5 Driver's Licence.

This is a full-time, permanent position at 37.5 hours per week offering a wage of $36.66 per hour.

Please submit a detailed resume and a cover letter that clearly explains how your experience and qualifications align with the requirements of this position. Applications will be accepted in confidence, and reviewed on an ongoing basis until the position is filled.
